

Public consultation on future funding activities in the area of Justice, Fundamental Rights and Equality for the period after 2013

> Purpose of the consultation

The Commission is consulting on future EU funding activities in the area of Justice, Fundamental Rights and Equality for the post-2013 area, based on a series of questions. This will give stakeholders the opportunity to express their views on the effectiveness and efficiency of the current funding activities of DG Justice and on how they can be improved to better achieve their objectives and bring greater added value.

> Who can respond to the consultation?

All persons and entities with an interest in DG Justice's activities are welcome to contribute, including other European institutions, agencies and committees.

> How long will the consultation be open?

The consultation will be open between 20 April 2011 and 15 June 2011.

> How to contribute

The questionnaire can be accessed via the following website and should take no longer than 10-15 minutes to complete:
